Call for papers — extended deadline

Special Issue — Dimensions of dementia

The Editorial Board of the British Journal of Occupational Therapy will publish a special issue in 2016 on the topic of ‘Dimensions of dementia’.

This special issue will provide an international forum for research papers, critical reviews, practice analyses, and opinion pieces relevant to theory, practice, research, education, and management related to occupational therapy’s contribution to dementia care. We are specifically looking for research articles and critical reviews that address the different dimensions of the experience of dementia with relevance to occupational therapy.

The special issue will be guest edited by Jackie Pool, CEO of Jackie Pool Associates Ltd, and Dr Lesley Collier, Senior Lecturer in Occupational Therapy at the University of Southampton and a member of the British Journal of Occupational Therapy’s Editorial Board.

Manuscript submissions are welcome within any of the article categories listed in the Author’s Guide. Priority will be given to manuscripts that will have a direct impact on practice or policy. For further information see http://www.cot.co.uk/contribute-and-submit-bjot/submit-bjot-articles-online.

Manuscripts should be submitted in the normal manner via http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/bjot and will undergo peer review. Authors should indicate clearly in their covering letter and at the end of the abstract that they wish their submission to be considered for inclusion in the ‘Dimensions of dementia’ special issue.

The deadline for submissions is 27 February 2015.

Please send any enquiries in the first instance to: Katharine Norman, Editor, email: katharine.norman@cot.co.uk, Tel: +44 (0)20 7450 2338.
